This workshop has been completely life-changing. It has made me look at my "tough" kiddos in a whole new light. I feel better prepared to teach them now that I understand what is motivating their behavior. Trust psychology is going to help me understand all the nuts around me and not take it personally. This workshop was never boring, high involvement, high energy

This has been the most amazing class. I have been teaching for 24 years and I so excited to start fresh this year with High Trust. My children (at home and husband) have already noticed a change in my attitude, I am much more positive and I am encouraging my family to do the same. You are an absolutely amazing person. I can hardly wait to take High Trust again!

Thank you!
Tracy DeBruyker

For my 11 years of teaching I have felt like there was something ~~more out there~~ or better out there that "fit" my teaching style but just never knew what it was OR where to find it.

High Trust is that piece that was missing and totally embodies the teacher I want to be. What an awesome and inspiring gift you have shared with all of us.

This class has also provided me with the tools and skills to be a better teacher, friend, significant other (wife), and Christian. I cannot thank you enough and I look forward to taking the class again.

Thanks,

Melissa Chevalier

I loved this workshop. I took in January, and I feel like this was a new enhanced experience. I have told my co-workers and family about Low High Trust has positively affected by life as an educator and my life in general. Thank you, Denny this has been an excellent experience. High Trust has changed my life for the better.
