With sincere thanks,

Hi Denny,

I can't begin to tell you how much fun I am having this year with my new high trust classroom. What a difference it is making in my teaching and my effectiveness in instruction. I've never had so much fun, and I don't think I've ever been this effective before. Thank you so much for your energy and for messing with our heads! I don't know if Scott told you or not, but we completely analyzed our lives the week you were here. I'm sure that's no big shock to you, but it was life changing for us and not just in our classrooms. I feel like I have a new lease on life!

Thanks again for sharing yourself with us; I can't wait until you come back again!

ARFF out:)
MagyHelle

Denny,

Never have I attended a workshop that was as exciting and meaningful as yours. I had no idea what was about to take place this year in my classroom, but Magy, Steve, and I decided to jump into High Trust with both feet and stumble through. These first weeks have been so exciting I don't know where to begin except a big hug and thank you.

We are definitely stumbling at times. What surprised me is how unclear I was at times, and how now, I am rethinking all of my lessons to make sure that they are broken down in bits and pieces to a level of understanding for all students. As far as student behavior, I now look forward to the teaching moment when they mess up.

Thanks again for the class and keep it up. The three of us have each been teaching for 15+ years and never have we had anything impact our ability as much as your class. I hope to see you again this year.

Sincerely,
N. Scott Helle
