With sincere thanks,

Denny-

I prayed last night and thanked God/Jesus for sending you into my life! Thank you for sharing your message of Joy and Power to be the greatest gift I can be to my students! I am so excited to live in Trust calmly and empowered to teach and prepare my students for life.

You are amazing and I will continue to pray that God blesses and protects you and your family.

Please let me know if you need any support with your daughter living abroad. Big hugs + thanks!

The workshop became a personal journey in addition to one to enhance my professional life. I admire Dennis' energy + zeal to put forth his message + have us "carry the torch" of High Trust.

I have always believed in the relational aspect of teaching at the core of everything. This intensive workshop served to cement my beliefs while giving me a wealth of material/ thoughts to employ in my daily life + interactions.

1. How would you celebrate this workshop, overall:

0 10 20 30 40 50 60 70 80 90 100.....
One of the worst Average One of the Best the High Trust Workshops if you had one in the past

100+

The Best Ever!

2. What three [3] ideas/concepts did you really like?

- a. ARFF
- b. Double Scoop
- c. The 3 parental/teacher responsibilities

3. What two (2) phrases/quotes in this workshop did you really like?

- a. would you like to think it out or would you like some support
- b. It's ok to make a mistake.
Mistakes are where the new learning begins.

[ON THE BACK IF YOU WANT MORE ROOM]

With sincere thanks,

Denny,

There was too much to say.

1. Thank you for an opportunity to connect with Molly and learn about High Trust, which she cares about so deeply.
2. Thank you for the learning that I used this morning with a student teacher. She phrased a comment to a kid in the negative (Don't sell yourself short) and I've begun the discussion about reframing comments to kids in the positive.
3. Thank you for reminding me of the value of frontloading, in the classroom and in life!
4. Thank you for teaching me about first heard, best remembered, last heard, second best remembered. I want to rethink my initial contact with Hannah, Molly and her brother and sister, my students, and all who I meet. (IT'S YOU!)

5. Thank you for awakening in me the pointlessness of punishment. My five student teachers and I blog weekly during their student teaching semester. In response to a student's question, I opened up that punishment is counterproductive. I want to challenge their thinking and my own.

And these are just the things I'm thinking this morning.

Our plane was delayed 2.5 hours and we arrived home safe and sound in Maine at 130A. I hope your flight West is wonderful (a positive rather than not delayed). Old dog takes a while.

Best to Louisa, Asia, and Michaela. Dan

I wish this workshop could be an ACPs mandatory one so that the positive ARIF-filled people would be able to outnumber the negative turd smellers!
-maybe you should enroll your friend Mott?
