

The energy, the fun, the talent, the moxie, the dedication,.....
Yes, you are the GREAT Gift!

Hi, Denny!

It was so wonderful to see YOU, to experience once again the warm friendship and close connection we've had for several years, and to laugh so hard (with tears) as I watched you teach! I both anticipated and expected the fun! The wink was a bonus!!

Wow - you have touched so many lives in such a positive way! And, how honored I am to have been taught by you and to have taught your work with you - the best, by far, and most rewarding experiences in my life. My emotions run very deep..thank you so much...

Remember, when you asked the group to think about a favorite teacher because it is often the influence of one teacher that moves us toward a life's work in teaching? I thought about Mr. Klug, my 7th grade teacher, who appreciated and respected me every day I was in his class. And, I thought about you..because you taught me to know myself better in order to be a better teacher (and you made me do the work)! And, although I wish I was saying this to you face-to-face when we were sharing time and having one of our great talks, John and my best work are our two beautiful children -- Jenni and Joel -- who love us deeply and share with us their gratefulness that we are their parents. And, in my heart-of-hearts, you are in this story because I truly believe you contributed to my ability to be a great parent.Thank you so much...

*You are LOVED by me (but you already knew that),
Kim*
